

Student Blogging Agreement

Place a checkmark next to each statement to indicate you agree.

- I will not use any inappropriate language.
- I will do my best to use correct spelling and grammar.
- I will give only positive feedback.
- I will only use my code name.
- I will not use any person's real name.
- I will not add comments using another person's code name.
- I will not plagiarize.

I recognize that breaking any of the rules could lead to any of the following consequences depending on severity and repetition.

- Warning
- Deletion of some or all of the post
- Temporary loss of blogging privileges
- Permanent loss of blogging privileges

I further recognize that blogging is considered a virtual extension of the classroom, and therefore all school, and district rules and regulations apply. I am aware that violations of any of these rules may be referred to the school administration.

Student Signature

Date