

Caleb Puls

Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone in 1876.

The telephone has ten digits on it.

The telephone has four parts, the transmitter, receiver, dial, and buttons.

The phone that you can put in your pocket and receives messages with radio waves is the cellular phone.

