

Clark English IV AP/Dual Summer Reading 2022-2023

From the following list, choose at least three of the following short stories to read as your summer reading assignment. You should be able to find most of these stories online. You should have these read by the beginning of school and be ready to work with them in class:

“Big Two-Hearted River I&II”--Ernest Hemingway

“The Things They Carried”--Tim O’Brien

“A Good Man is Hard to Find”--Flannery O’Connor

“Everyday Use” --Alice Walker

“Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge”--Ambrose Bierce

“Silence” - Alice Munro

“The Open Boat”--Stephen Crane

“At War with the Eskimos” - J.D. Salinger

“Where Are You Going, Where Have You Been?” -
Joyce Carol Oates

“The Garden Party” - Katherine Mansfield

“The A&P” - John Updike

“The Monkey’s Paw” - W.W. Jacobs

“Fall of the House of Usher” - Edgar Allan Poe

“Recitatif” - Toni Morrison

“The Outcasts of Poker Flat” - Bret Harte

“Rip Van Winkle” --Washington Irving

“The Birthmark”--Nathaniel Hawthorne

“The Lottery”--Shirley Jackson

“A Small Good Thing”--Raymond Carver

“The $30,000 Bequest” - Mark Twain

“Shiloh”--Bobbie Ann Mason

“Babylon Revisited”--F. Scott Fitzgerald

“Sonny’s Blues”--James Baldwin

“The Swimmer”--John Cheever

“Hands”--Sherwood Anderson

“The Dead”--James Joyce

“The Rocking Horse Winner”--D.H. Lawrence

“The Mark on the Wall”--Virginia Woolf

“The Man Who Would Be King”--Rudyard Kipling