The screenshot shows the 'Home Access Center (HAC)' page. It features a header with three people icons and the text 'Home Access Center (HAC)'. Below the header, there is a section about account creation for parents. Another section for students provides instructions on how to log in using their student ID and password. A sidebar on the right lists links for 'Quickstart guide', 'Returning student registration guide', and 'Guía de inscripción de alumnos de reingreso'. At the bottom, there is a note about data privacy concerns and a link to a form for account requests. A red arrow points from the 'complete this online form' link to the explanatory text about technician contact.

The Home Access Center (HAC) allows parents to access grades and attendance information. Your username is your email address and your password is the temporary password you received by email. You will be required to change it the first time you log in.

Middle School and High School students can access HAC by using their student ID number (with the "s") as the username and their student password. If they do not know their student password, they can speak with the TSS or a teacher at their school.

To request a HAC account or report a problem, complete this online form and a technician will contact you via email or phone within two business days.

Due to data privacy concerns, some third-party "Apps" may not work with NISD's Home Access Center (HAC) (even if the app claims support). Northside can only provide help to those using the official HAC website.
