Student Code of Conduct

Anson Jones Middle School

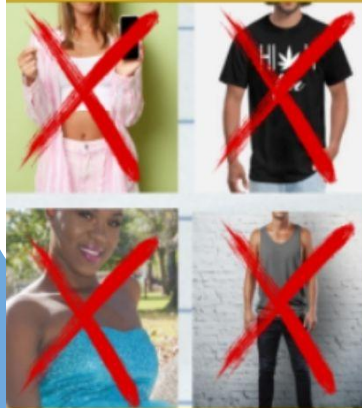

2025-2026

AJMS will strictly enforce our dress code policy as outlined in the Parent/Student Handbook. Dress code violations will result in a request for parents to bring a change of clothing and/or disciplinary consequences.

All pants must be full-length and worn at the waist.

Pants with holes bigger than 1 inch & above the knee, sagging, and pajamas are prohibited.

All t-shirts must have sleeves, be an appropriate length, and have suitable wording (if any).

Strapless shirts, spaghetti straps, crop tops, sleeveless shirts, muscle tees, inappropriate wording, or inappropriate graphics are prohibited.

Appropriate footwear must be worn. Crocs are acceptable, although tennis shoes must be worn in PE/Athletics.

Flip-flops, sandals, slides and/or steel-toed boots are prohibited.

Skirts, dresses, and shorts are allowed if they are no more than 4 inches from the kneecap. Shorts are expected to be secured with either a belt or a drawstring. Short shorts, caps, hats and beanies are prohibited. Hoodies can not cover your head.

Title I Campuses

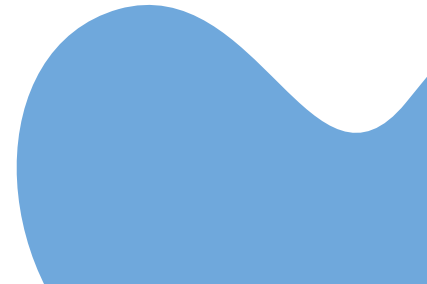

Under Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), campuses with high numbers of economically disadvantaged students (75% or above) must be served with federal Title I funds. It is the District's decision to serve schools below 75%.

Anson Jones is approximately 78% economically disadvantaged.

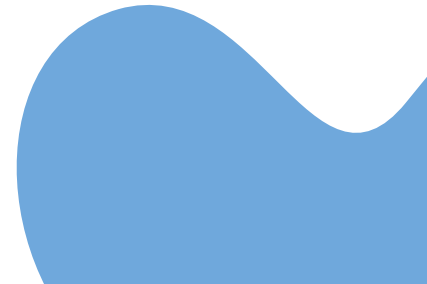

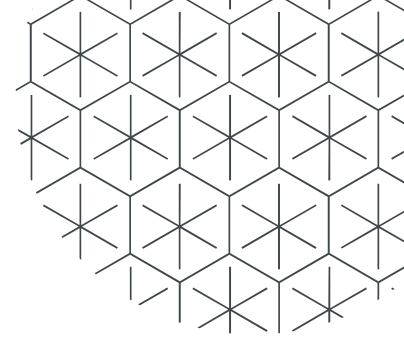

The Impact

Anson Jones MS receives approximately $871,480 from the federal government that must be spent according to strict guidelines. Title I schools must use evidence-based instructional strategies and implement a parent and family engagement program.

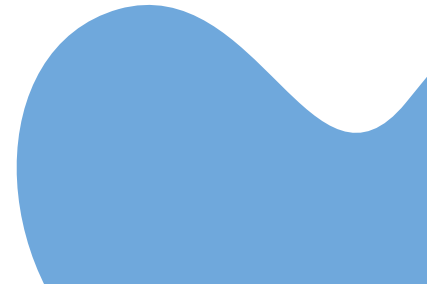

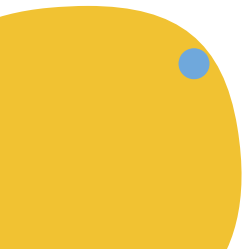

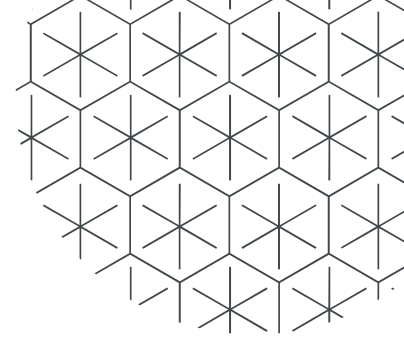

The Impact

- Additional Staff
 - Math Specialist
 - Reading/ELA Specialist
 - Family Liaison
 - Additional Classroom Teachers
- Instructional Supplies/Resources
- Before/After School Tutoring
- Professional Development
- Family Engagement
