

Marshall High School English 2 Pre-AP Summer Reading

Where We Are Shapes Who We Are

What is the individual's responsibility to their 'home'?

What is the individual's responsibility to their environment?

As an English II Pre-AP student, you are required to read and annotate a book from the list below. The reading and annotation of the novel must be completed before the first day of school. Since you will use your summer reading book to think and write critically, you will need a copy of your annotated book in class during the first weeks of school. Please use the questions at the top of the assignment as a reading focus.

If you have any questions, please e-mail the Marshall High School English Coordinator, Jessi Lane. Jessica.lane@nisd.net

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland - Lewis Carroll

Catcher in the Rye - J. D. Salinger

Emma - Jane Austen

Fahrenheit 451 - Ray Bradbury

How the Garcia Girls Lost Their Accents - Julia Alvarez

I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings - Maya Angelou

Les Miserables - Victor Hugo

Life of Pi - Yann Martel

Lord of the Flies - William Golding

The Metamorphosis - Franz Kafka

The Pelican Brief - John Grisham

Pet Sematary - Stephen King

A Separate Peace - John Knowles

Their Eyes Were Watching God - Zora Neale Hurston

1984 - George Orwell

Annotating requires that you make notes in the text that help you read critically with the questions in mind. Highlight passages you find interesting, write questions in the margin, and notice anything the author did that contributes you what your ideas are about the individual's responsibility. Those questions will drive our conversation and writing during the beginning of school.
