Attendance

Parents are required by Texas Compulsory Attendance Law to ensure their child(ren) are in school the full day of instruction (7:45 a.m.–3:00 p.m.) every day of the school year. Children who are absent miss valuable instruction. Absences affect the quality of a student's work and negatively impacts the child's learning.

All absences (excused or unexcused) count toward the compulsory attendance 90% rule. Students missing more than 10% of the school year are at risk of retention.

When a child is absent or tardy from school, the parent or guardian must send a note with parent signature within 3 days, explaining the reason for the absence upon the child's return to school. A phone call will NOT be used as documentation towards an absence.

All notes must include:

- The date of the note
- The name of the child
- The student ID # (lunch number)
- The date of the absence or tardy
- The specific reason for the absence or tardy
- The parent's signature

An absence may be excused when there is an acceptable cause such as personal illness, death in the family, or valid family emergency. Vacations are not an acceptable cause for an excused absence from school. When a student's absence for personal illness exceeds three consecutive days, a statement from a physician or health clinic verifying the illness or other condition should be provided. Failure to provide any note within 3 days will result in an unexcused absence.

Attendance continued

Absences Excused Excused with a Note	Absences Unexcused Even with a Note
Illness 	Car Trouble
Medical Appointments	Missed Bus
Religious Holidays	Overslept
Funerals of Immediate Family	Family Business (including trips)
Court Appointments with Subpoena	Errands for or with Parents
*All above are unexcused without a note	Vacations
